A TRIBUTE TO

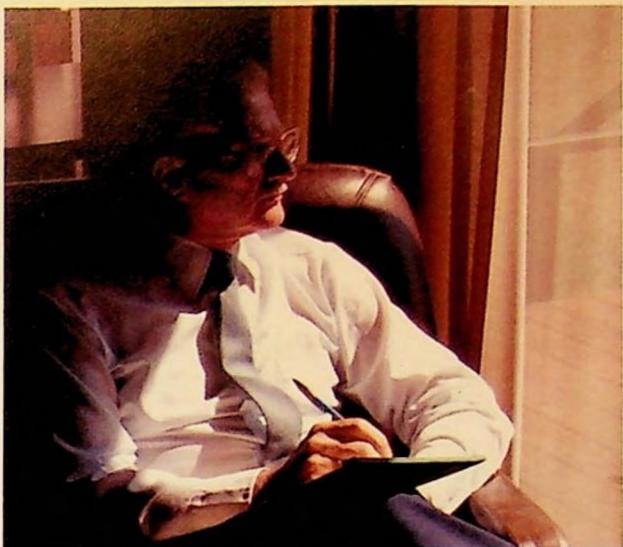

"If any one would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all." Mark 9:35.

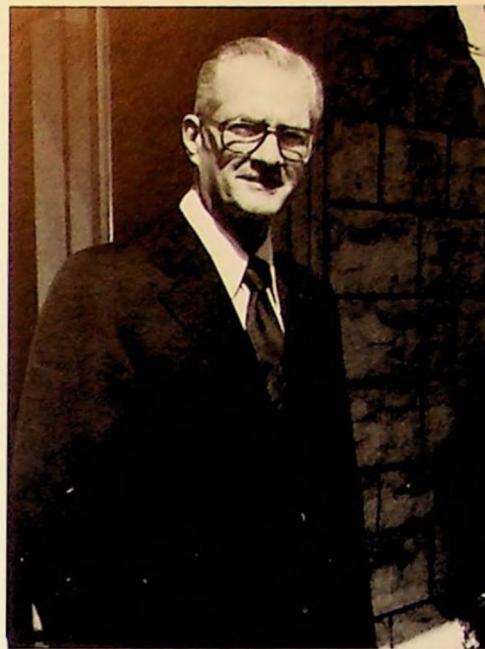

Dr. W. F. Lown

The following pages are a tribute to a man who has given selflessly to all who come into contact with him, a man who has become "the servant of all." This is our way of showing Dr. Lown our appreciation for his dedication during the last twenty-six years as president and seven years as a faculty member. Thank you, Dr. Lown, and may God richly bless your every moment.

And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God
the Father through him.

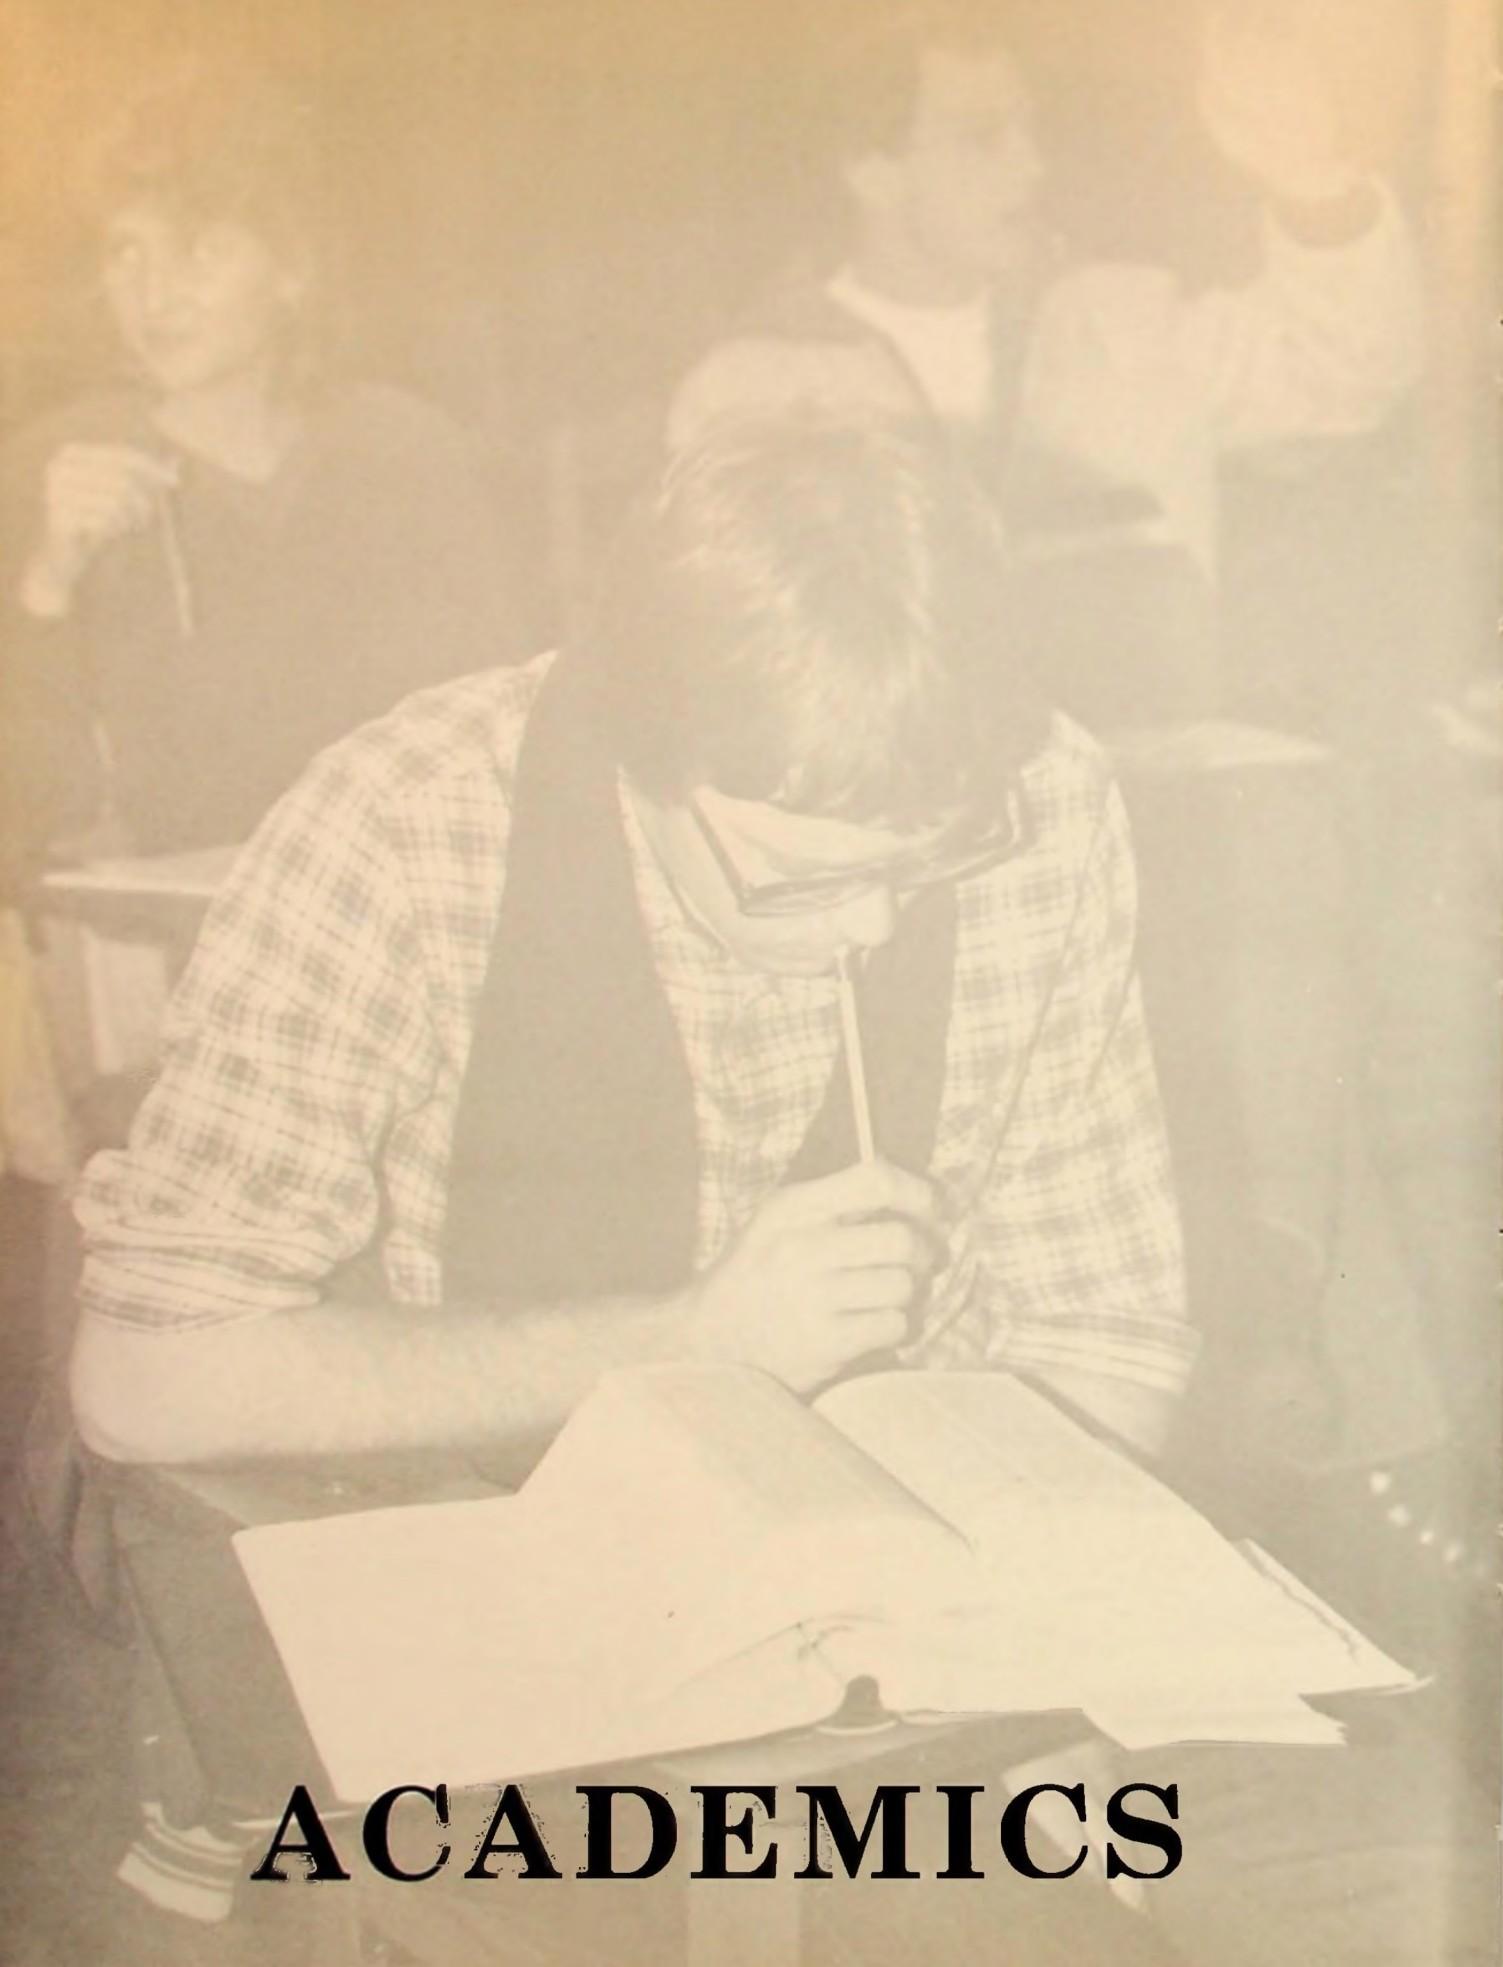

— Colossians 3:17, RSV.

ACTIVITIES

Matthew 4:17-25

The beginning of Jesus' ministry
14:12-17; Mk 1:14,15; Lk 4:14-15. In 4:13

12 Now when he heard that John had been taken into custody, and having left with his two sons, he went to Galilee. — that what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah still stands:

13 "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea across the Jordan,

Galilee of the Gentiles—

the people who sat in darkness
have seen a great light;

and for those who sat in the region and shadow of light has dawned." — From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, "Returning of the kingdom is at hand."

The call of James and John

14:18-25, cf. Mk 1:16-20; Lk 5:1-11

14 As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon who is called Peter and Andrew his brother come out into the sea, for they were fishermen. — And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." And they immediately left their nets and followed him. — And going on he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. — Immediately they left the boat and followed him.

15 And he went about all Galilee, teaching in their towns and preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing every unclean spirit among the people. — And he went about all Galilee, and they brought to him all who suffered with various diseases and evils, those possessed by devils, and the paralyzed, — And great multitudes followed him, and the gospel spread far and wide beyond the borders.

Matthew 5:1-20

The Sermon on the Mount (5:1-7:29; 18:6-20-49)

1. The Beatitudes (5:1-12; 18:6-20-27)

5 - Seeing the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and when he sat down his disciples came to him. And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying:

3 - "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 - Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

5 - Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

6 - Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

7 - Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

8 - Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

9 - Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

10 - Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 - Blessed are you when men revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so men persecuted the prophets who were before you.

2. What the believers are like (5:13-16)

13 - You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trodden under foot by men.

14 - You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden.

15 - Nor do men light a lamp and put it under a bushel, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

3. The righteousness required (5:22-29)

16 - Think not that I have come to abolish the law and the prophets. I have not come to abolish them, but to fulfill them. 17 - Truly, I say to you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven. 18 - You therefore must be perfect, as your Father in heaven is perfect.

Fall Festival of Faith

On Friday, October 16, 1981, approximately 380 high school juniors and seniors gathered on the MCC campus for the annual Fall Festival of Faith. They spent the weekend being informed, entertained, and challenged by the many activities coordinated and planned by Festival Chairperson, Sandy Bradshaw. The students were offered a wide range of activities, including: a carnival, a concert by Triumphant Sound, Break-out Meetings, main sessions with speaker Tim Coop, a Banquet, a concert by September, lots of time for good fellowship, and to round out the weekend, a Celebration Worship Service on Sunday morning in All Faiths Chapel.

- 1) As MCC Students Angie Pucket, Rose Hanlin, and Deb Crocket show, even college students enjoy carnivals.
- 2) Sometimes you feel like just sitting back and watching, 3) and sometimes it is more fun to participate.
- 4) September in concert.
- 5) How do you like your eggs, Barry-scrambled?
- 6) Cathy and Andy Cassel enjoyed the rides.
- 7) The September concert was well attended by both high school and college students.
- 8) Vana and Phil played for the Sunday morning Celebration Worship Service.
- 9) Tim Coop was the main speaker.
- 10) Ewing, you killed Jesse!!!
- 11) Celebration Singers sang at the Sunday morning Celebration Worship Service.

PREACHING CONVENTION

This year's convention theme was "The Bible: God's Authority for the Church." The opening session was a surprise "This is Your Life" for the Lowns. All three music groups sang throughout the week — New Creation Choir, Triumphant Sound, and Celebration Singers. Speakers for the week included Dr. Jack Cottrell; Dr. Marion Henderson, who was the main speaker; and Mark Taylor. The week also had in store an alumni basketball game between the "evens" and the "odds." The play-by-play was given by sportscasters Charles Cook and Dennis Glenn.

PARENTS' DAY

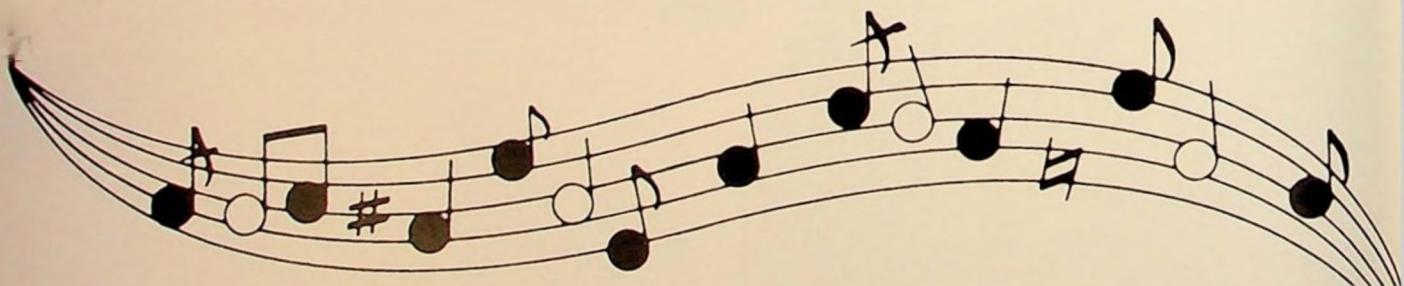

Parents' Day was held on February 19, 20, and 21 this year. The theme was "Ma, Pa, Me, and Thee." Gina Boyd headed the committee that planned the activities for Parents' Day. These activities included a concert by Celebration Singers, a talent show, and a banquet given in the parents' honor.

ALUMNI- SENIOR BANQUET

FACULTY-STAFF-SENIOR BANQUET

The graduating seniors are traditionally the guests of the alumni and of the faculty and staff. The faculty-staff-senior banquet was particularly memorable. The Reverend David Pape shared an excellent message, "How to Cope with Life," and Dr. James Van Buren presented another memorable "Senior Soliloquy." The evening ended with a statement of plans by each senior.
